International Item Library

Sharing assessment tools for a better education

<https://www.itemlibrary.org/#content>

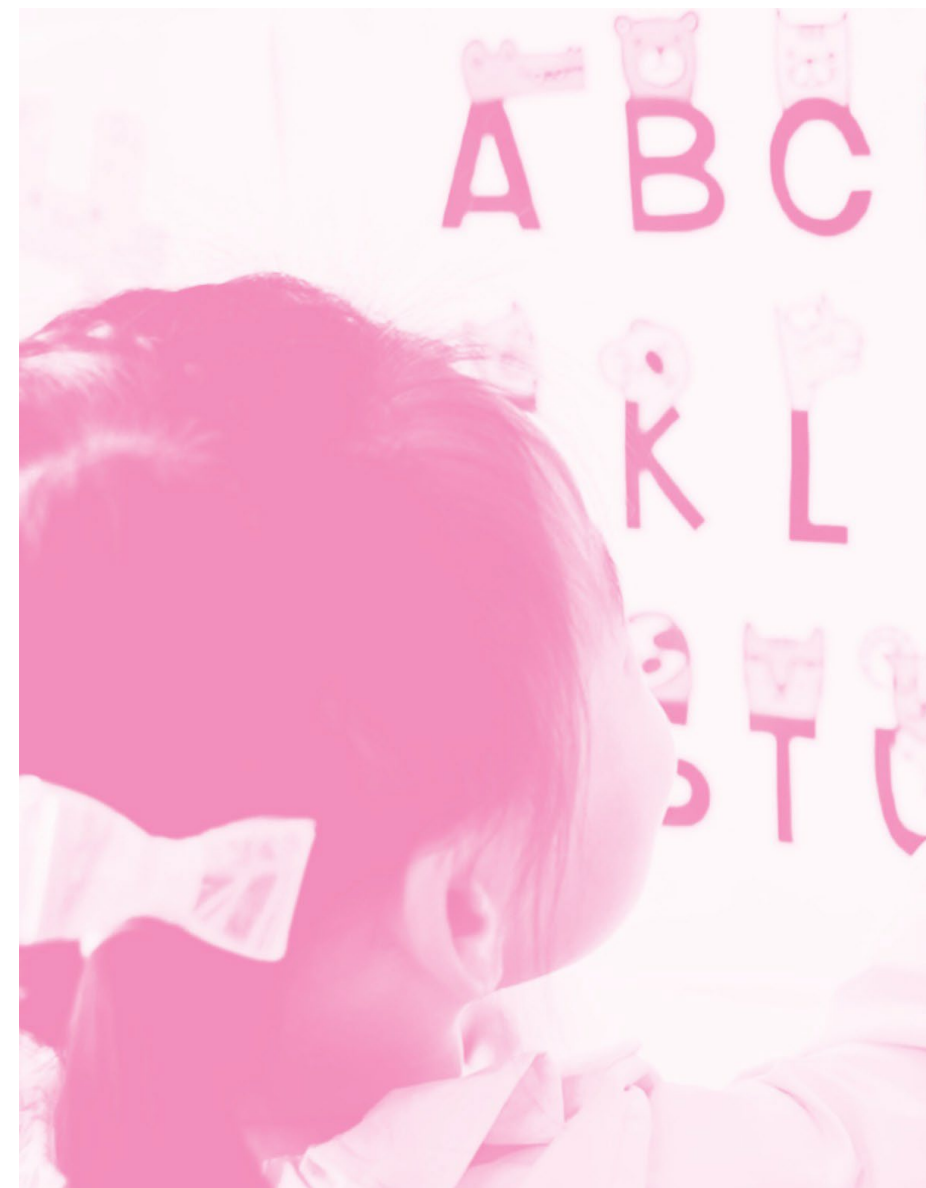

A collaborative space for sharing content and tools

A innovative global project that promotes the culture of assessment by offering educational institutions a collaborative space to share assessment content and tools

Develop and share items

involving interactive situations, complex task-resolution problems, to improve the assessment of 21st-century skills

A means for robust, calibrated instruments to obtain indicators

- to monitor national assessment programs;
- to develop global indicators, such as UNESCO's SDG;
- and to support teachers in creating classroom assessments.

Value-added of the IIL

Open-source and shared ownership platform with assessment content for educational purposes for teachers, administrators and policymakers

A space for global collaboration

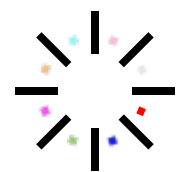

- a source of inspiration for creating innovative digital items;
- options to upload, browse and borrow assessment content
- possibility to gather additional data related to assessment items and country contexts

Access to calibrated items

- to be used in national assessment programs;
- to be aligned with the attainment of international competency thresholds;
- to be used in the classroom by teachers/educators
