UNESCO HEADQUARTERS INFORMATION

Registration and collecting visitor's badges

Participants of the meeting are invited to collect their event-specific badge from 08:00 to 08:40 on 6 December 2023 at the UNESCO's Reception desk (125 avenue de Suffren, 75007 Paris).

You are kindly encouraged to arrive on time to allow enough time for the registration and airportstyle security check. Please note that an official government-issued photo ID is necessary to collect your event badge and gain access to the building.

COVID-19 health measures

Wearing a mask is no longer mandatory.

Since the outbreak of the COVID-19 pandemic, UNESCO has put in place health measures to reduce the risks of the virus spreading within the Organization. The premises are cleaned regularly as well as the technical equipment.

If you are a contact case or have any symptoms (onset of fever, headache, body aches, rhinitis, abdominal pain, etc.), you are asked to be tested against Covid before coming to UNESCO.

PARIS INFORMATION

Transportation in Paris

Public transport

https://www.ratp.fr/en/

Metro: One ticket is valid for one trip regardless of the distance travelled.

Stations close to UNESCO: Ségur, Cambronne, Sèvres-Lecourbe, École Militaire.

Bus and tram: Use the same tickets as for the metro; one ticket per trip.

Buses which pass near UNESCO: 28, 80, 82, 87, 92

VELIB' bike sharing system

The Vélib' Metropole provides 20,000 bikes in self-service, in classic version (green) or with electric assistance (blue). Docking points are spread throughout the capital. You can use them with or without subscription.

Taxis

You can find taxis by calling the reservations center of one of these companies:

Taxis G7: + 33 1 41 27 66 99

Alpha Taxis: + 33 1 45 85 85 85

You can also call the nearest taxi rank to UNESCO Headquarters:
