FLIP+ Library – Vision and objectives

A world where education is at the centre, where countries work together to improve education worldwide

- We want to strengthen international collaboration by sharing assessment materials
- We want to reduce the time to design assessments by facilitating the access to the items

FLIP+ Library: Consortium members and first priorities

Five national Consortium Partners and UNESCO

- DEPP-France
- INVALSI-Italy
- CAED-Brazil
- NDET-Norway
- NAE-Lithuania
- UNESCO Institute of Statistics (UIS)
- Administrative tools: user, role, and organisational management
- Content management: uploading and organising assessment items
- Interactive features: collaborative tools for users

FLIP+ Library: User-Acceptance test ahead of Release 1

- 24th February – 21st March 2025
- Short term expectations:
 - focus on importing calibrated items in some priority topics (Maths, English...)

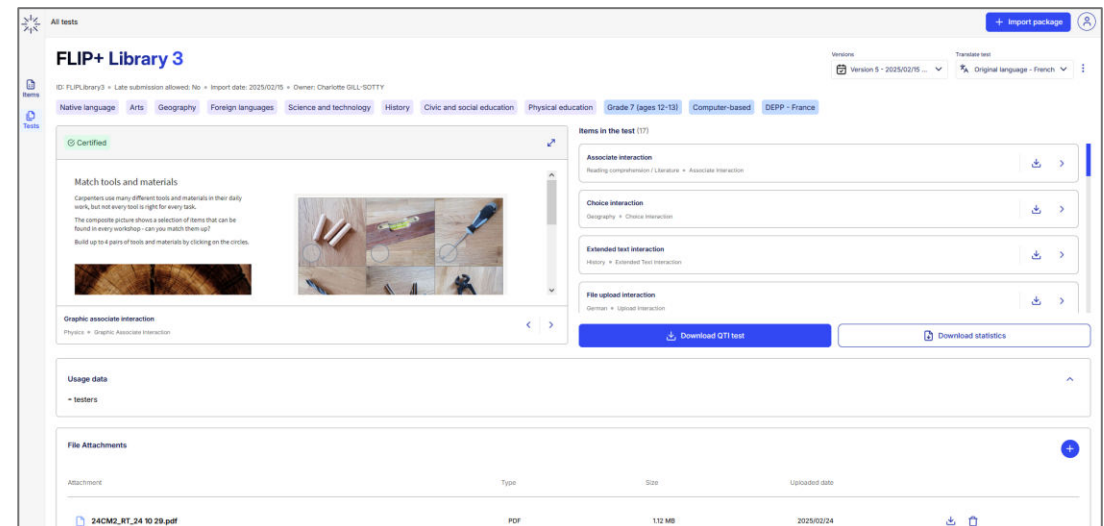

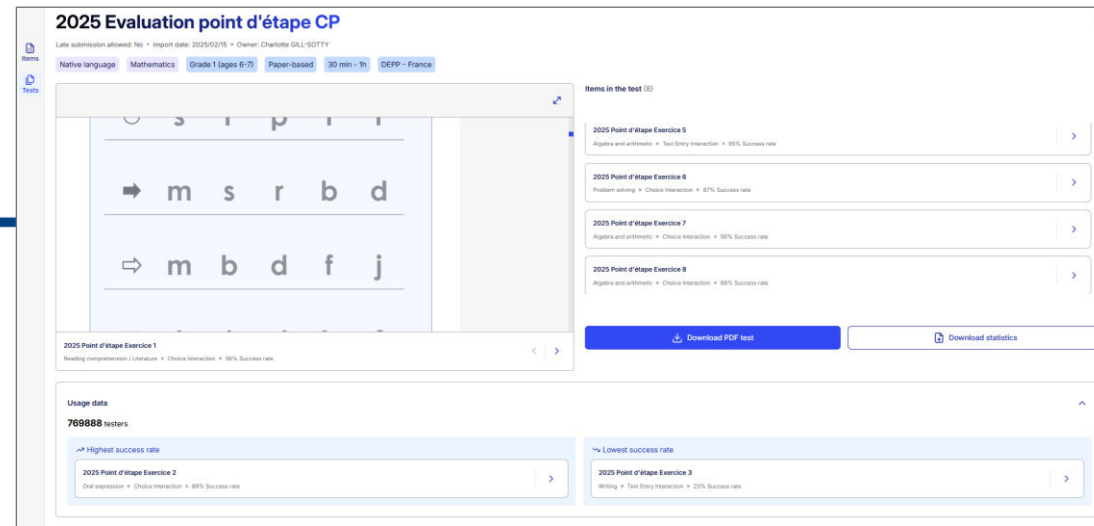

70+ experts from our global consortium members pre-testing Release 1

Emphasis on:

- key features, from content organisation to interactive assessment tools.
- feedback to enhance the platform and gradually expand access to all FLIP+ members in the coming months

FLIP+ Library: Release 1

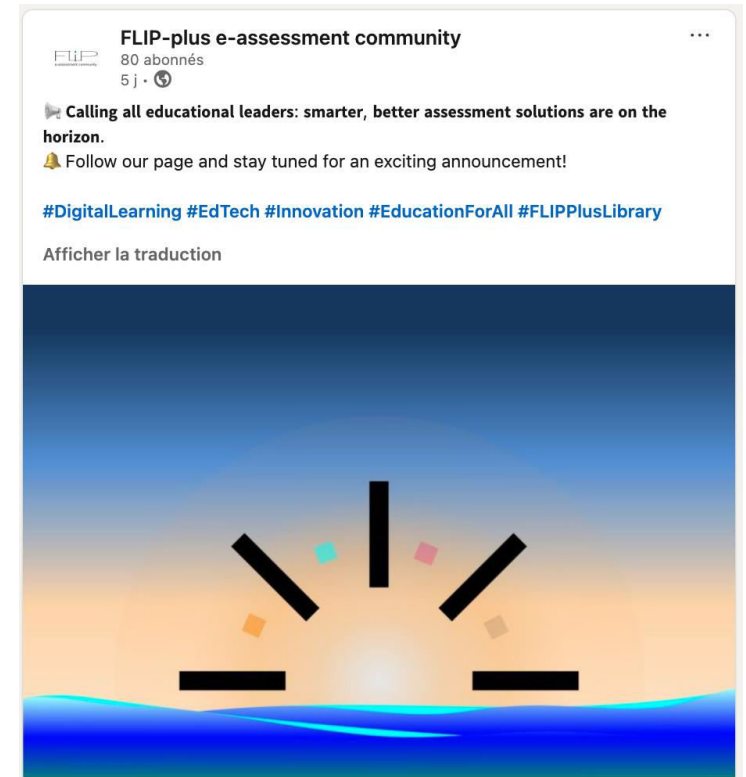

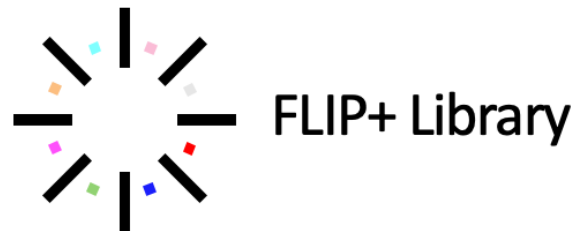

- From 21st March 2025
- Upload items based :
 - on an import template
 - up to 500 items per consortium institution
- Grades 5, 8, 9 and 10
- Automatic translation to ENG

FLIP+ Library: Next steps

Key points:

- Capacity-building
- Quality assurance
- Country engagement
- Sustainability
